Protection & Preservation

Lamination will extend the life of any document, especially if it is frequently handled. Lamination protects a document from dirt and damage and gives it a durable, wipe-clean surface which is totally sealed and waterproof.

Enhancement

The laminating pouch bonds with the surface of the document, so that it looks brighter and cleaner. Text appears crisper while colours are enhanced or subdued, depending whether a gloss or matt finish is chosen.

Security

Any document is tamper-proof once it has been sealed within the laminating pouch. It is impossible to amend or change a laminated document nor can it be removed from the laminated seal.

Rexel Laminating Pouches

Rexel Laminating Pouches are compatible with Rexel branded and most other laminating machines. Only the best quality materials are used in their manufacture and all sizes have rounded corners to ensure safe handling and provide a more attractive finish.

Carrier-free Machines

'Carrier-free' machines are used without a carrier, which makes laminating large quantities of documents less time-consuming. However, a carrier protects valued documents from coming into contact with any glue or dust inside the laminator and its use is recommended for an exceptionally pristine result.

The document to be laminated is simply placed inside the laminating pouch and fed through the laminator.

Rexel Laminating Range

The huge growth in low cost colour printers and the wider access to DTP software has led to a massive improvement in the quality of presentation material. Customers and colleagues alike expect well-presented documents and signage. Lamination enhances the colours of inkjet and laser prints as well as photographs and other documents giving them a more professional finish. The beautifully styled, top quality Rexel laminators will help protect preserve and enhance all your important or frequently handled documents, at home or in the office.

All Rexel laminators have a 2 year guarantee.

Home & Hobby Range

This range of personal laminators offers outstanding value for money, producing excellent results at low cost.

Small Office / Home Office

This range of laminators is easy to use. These attractively styled machines give superb results without the need for a carrier. Offering excellent value for money, they are ideal machines for home or office use.
Office Range

This range of stylish laminators was developed following two years of research into what users really want from an office laminator. The result is an outstanding combination of innovative design and advanced features which provide the perfect laminating solution within the corporate environment.

Ultra Performance Range

These dynamic machines combine short warm-up cycles, superfast throughput speeds (up to 120cm/min) and convenient pre-set controls ensure the best results time after time for a unique performance package.
